* Congregational Call to Worship

Kayla Tibbs

We are called to proclaim the good news:
that God so loves the world.

We are the salt of the earth.

We are called to have new hope in God:
that God gives us new life.

We are the light of the world.

We are called to follow
the law of God.

The Law of God is to love God
and to love one another.

Come, let us be the salt of the earth,
the light of the world.

Come, let us love one another with the love of God.

Let us join together in our love of God
to worship and follow Jesus.

Zoom Sunday School - New Session

The Letter of James is often neglected in the New Testament, but it is filled with Christian insight. It has much to teach us about God's grace and our faithful response in the Church. The moral instruction in James often comes alive through vivid illustrations, pithy parables, and trenchant sayings. No wonder, then, it's been called the "wisdom" book of the New Testament. Join us by Zoom on Sunday mornings at 9:15 for seven thematic studies in James. Or watch these discussions on the May Memorial YouTube channel at your convenience.

Wednesday Night Gathering - “The Pandemic Vices” - by Bob Kruschwitz, on Zoom, 6:30 p.m., February 24 -- March 31. Those distortions of love, the capital vices or deadly sins, don’t take a vacation during a pandemic. Instead, they change their wily attacks our lives. Things like anger, greed, gluttony, envy, vainglory, and acedia (or sloth) manifest in new ways during times of anxiety and loneliness. On each of the six Wednesday nights of Lent, we’ll explore one of the vices and examine how it manifests during the pandemic. And drawing from a figure in the Christian tradition, we’ll discover a remedy and brainstorm together our defense.

Life Savers for Life Savers! You can bring (name brand) Life Savers to the church office (or worship), you can also donate for the cost of the mugs. They are $7 each, and you are encouraged to give to buy several for this project. If you write a check to purchase mugs, write “Life Savers” on the memo line. Place cash in an envelope with “Life Savers” written on the outside.

Scholarship Applications for 2021 – Scholarship applications are ready to pick up. Please complete and return to the church office before March 31st.
