Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him until daybreak.

As you came to Jacob in the night, come to us, that we may be satisfied when we awake.

Jacob said, "I will not let you go until you bless me."

The man said, "You shall no longer be called Jacob, but Israel, for you have striven with God and with humans, and have prevailed."

And there God blessed him.

As you blessed Jacob, bless us, that we may behold your face.

Jesus saw a great crowd, had compassion for them, and cured their sick.

As you healed the sick, heal us, that we may tell of your wondrous love.

Jesus ordered the crowd to sit down on the grass.

Taking the five loaves and the two fish, he looked up to heaven, blessed and broke the loaves, and gave them to the crowd. All ate and were filled.

As you blessed the bread, bless us, that we may be bread for the world.

Come to us, heal us, and bless us, everlasting and merciful God. Amen.
