

Here is the table of the Lord,
we are gathered to his supper,
a foretaste of things eternal.

Come, when you are fearful, to be made new in love.
Come, when you are doubtful, to be made strong in faith.

Come, when you are regretful, and be made whole.
Come, old and young, there is room for all
We are invited to come together around this table as those who belong to the household of Christ, brothers and sisters who in our baptized lives live out the death and resurrection of Jesus. The family of the reborn and the reconciled, who inhabit a universe of grace.

What we do here, we do in imitation of what Christ first did.

On the night on which he was betrayed; and as they were sitting at a meal, Jesus took a piece of bread and broke it. He gave it to the disciples saying,
“This is my body broken for you. do this in remembrance of me.”

Later, after they had eaten,
he took a cup of wine and he said,

“This cup is the new relationship with God made possible because of my death.
Drink this all of you, and remember me.”

So now we do as Jesus did.
